Lyme Regis is on the South Coast in Dorset, 145 miles from London. It is easily accessible by road, rail and air. Rail services from Waterloo to Exeter stop at Axminster for Lyme Regis. Bristol and Exeter provide air links with the rest of the country and Europe. On entering Lyme Regis from the west, the Alexandra is on the right-hand side of Pound Street as it descends the hill into the centre. From the east, we are on the left-hand side, just past the cinema going up the hill.
