

The ‘Alexandra Seven Course Surprise Tasting Menu’

£75 per person

(5 course option £55)

The Process:

Every evening our Head Chef calls suppliers for a catch up to discuss what they have that is at its best, local, fresh and seasonal.

The whole team then create the menu; discussing ideas, planning how best to perfectly balance the given ingredients, collating flavours and textures so that the elements of not only each dish are complimentary to one another, but that this runs throughout the seven courses.

With experience of working in some of the country’s top rosette restaurants, the passion of the team shines through in every plate presented to you.

With the bonus of surprise, we hope you will totally relax, free from menus, free of decisions and allow yourself to be taken on an amazing west country food larder experience...
